

Happening's In the Office of Attorney General Steve Carter

July 23, 2007

Charges Filed Against Two Individuals for Defrauding the Medicaid Program of more than $3 Million

Federal and State investigators have uncovered a billing scheme to defraud the Medicaid program out of millions of dollars announced Indiana Attorney General Steve Carter.

Varnador Sutton and Antoinette Alexander have both been arrested and charged for fraudulently billing and receiving more than $3.2 million for psychotherapy and counseling services that were never provided.

“There were deliberate, concentrated efforts to defraud state and federal programs of funds intended to benefit our most vulnerable population.”

Click here to read the Associated Press story.

Click here to read the news release.

Carter Visits 37th Annual Indiana Black Expo Summer Celebration

Attorney General Steve Carter visited the 37th Annual Indiana Black Expo Summer Celebration and discussed unclaimed property with festival attendees.

Carter encouraged festival attendees to check IndianaUnclaimed.com several times a year for lost or forgotten assets in their names or the names of their friends and family.

The attorney general's office had a booth at the Expo, which took place from July 20 -22. Carter also joined Amos Brown on WTLC's

Afternoon's with Amos welcoming attendees on the 1st day of the Expo.

Attorney General Continues Commitment to Protect Kids at Symposium on Sex Offender Management

Attorney General Steve Carter joins with the Department of Justice's Symposium on Sex Offender Management and Accountability.

Carter will participate in a training session on offender management for law enforcement, prosecutors, probations officers, corrections officials, registry officials and state legislators.

Click here to read the Media Advisory.

Click here to read about how Attorney General Carter is protecting young Hoosiers.

Carter Enhances Website with User Friendly Consumer Alert Function

Attorney General Steve Carter has enhanced his online newsroom by implementing a new consumer alert drop down menu that allows users to easily find a consumer alert topic.

Click here to utilize this user friendly function.